TAFTVILLE

Miss Hildegard Cross of South A Street is in Hartford, Conn., to attend the Lister-Rock wedding.

John Murphy of South A Street, playing shortstop for the Taftville team in Williamstown Sunday, met with an injury to his eye, when the ball, struck a stone on the grounds, and hit him in the face, bruising the eye.

James Russo of Terrace Avenue has resigned his position with the Ponemah Company.

A step burning out on the water wheel of the Ponemah Mills Monday afternoon forced several of the departments to close down for the day.

Mrs. Philip Laroche has been confined to her home on South B Street by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott of South A Street are planning to move to California in the near future to take up their residence in that state.

E. R. Booth, a daughter Janet of New Bedford, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jervis and family of South Front Street, having been in town for the Jervis-Pillmore wedding.

Clarence Nagle of Providence, R. I., has returned to the village and has been entered the employ of the Ponemah House, as cook.

Richard Treger of North A Street met with a peculiar accident Saturday. When cleaning a light shade, his hand came in contact with a live wire, and as he was standing on metal he received a shock and was unable to let go the light. The shade finally broke and he fell to the floor. His wrists and arms are sore as a result of his experience.

George Meyer of Norwich Avenue was a guest of friends in South Manchester, Conn., over the week end.

Word has been received by friends in the village from Miss A. B. Bull, who left here several weeks ago to spend the summer in Poland, telling of her safe arrival at her parents' home in that country.

A new cement sidewalk is being laid on the south side of the Parish Hall.

The attractive new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Volzgraft on Manchester Avenue has been completed and will be ready for occupancy this week.

A. A. Arnold of Providence, R. I., was a business caller in the village Monday.

The regular meeting of the Manchester club was held at the club house on Tuesday evening and was attended by a large percentage of the members.

James Sharkey of South Front Street was a visitor early in the week in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laramie of Plainfield were recent guests of Mr. Laramie's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Smith of North B Street.

Mrs. Arthur Dunton of North B Street has returned after spending several days with friends in the village.

The ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. H. met Tuesday evening in their room in Parish hall.

To give the local game a chance to see a purely local game, and to provide them with an evening's amusement, a game between the Taftville A. A. and a team composed of local players will be staged on Thursday evening on the Providence Street grounds. This will be the first twilight game of the season, and will be strictly a friendly contest.

It was necessary on account of weather conditions last Saturday to postpone the contest with the All-Inurance team of Hartford until June 17th.

Miss Alexina Rochelle of Oakland, R. I., has returned to her home after spending a few weeks with Miss Lillian Laramie of North B Street, and Baltic and Ocean friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blair of Bristol, Conn., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laramie of North B Street, making the trip by motor.

The annual monthly meeting of Ponemah Wheel club was held Tuesday evening in the club house on Norwich Avenue.

The following high mass, a procession will form at the church, proceeding up Merchants Avenue to a vacant plot of ground where a ceremony will be held. The house along the avenue will be decorated as usual on this feast day of the church.

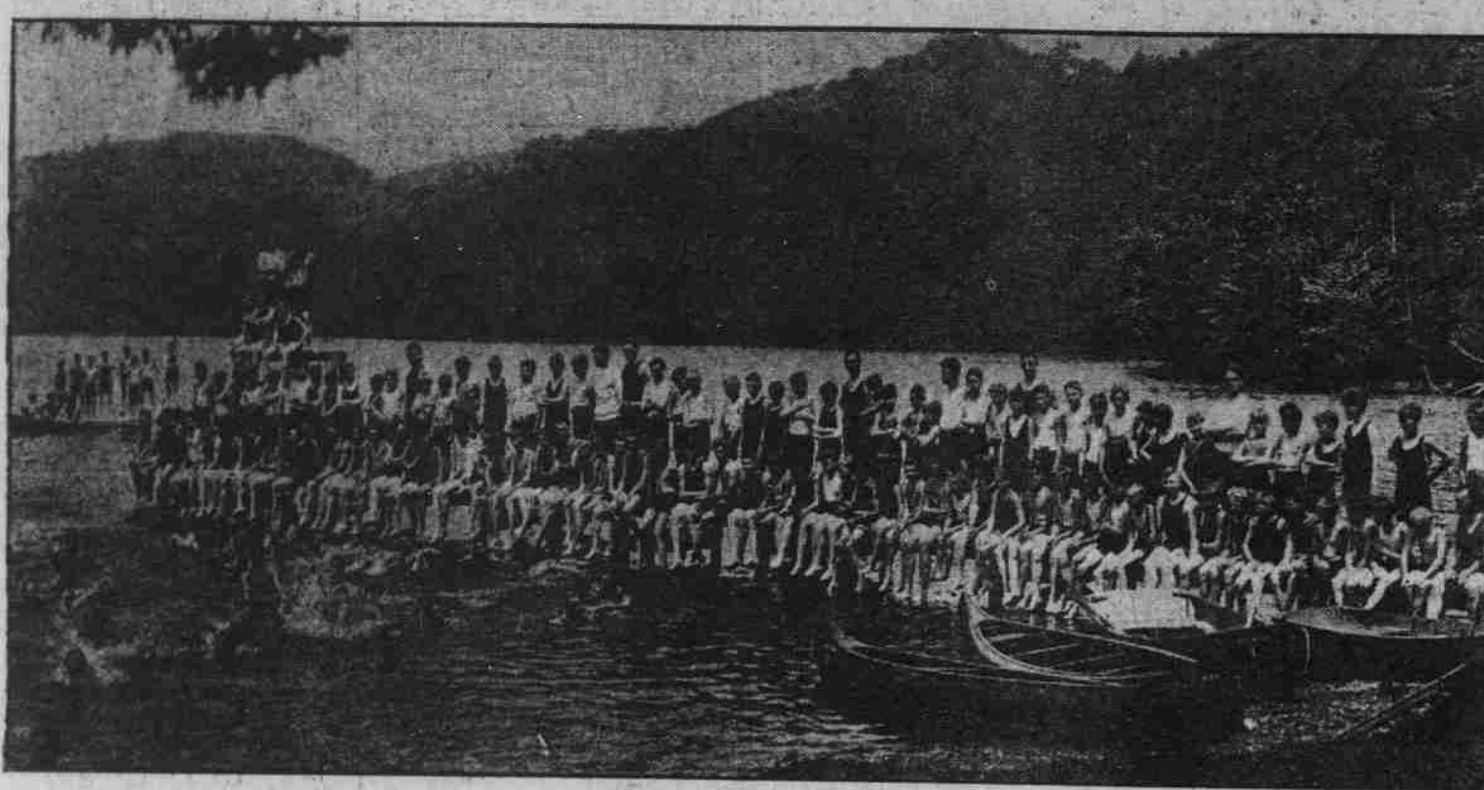

Miss Elizabeth Brooks entertained a few of her friends at her home on Terrace Avenue.

SCENE AT CAMP HAZEN, CEDAR LAKE, THE STATE Y. M. C. A. BOYS' CAMP

NORWICH Y. M. C. A. BOYS GOING TO CAMP HAZEN FOR VACATIONS

The Norwich Young Men's Christian Association is anticipating a good sized delegation of boys this summer to attend Camp Hazen, the State Y. M. C. A. Camp at Cedar Lake in the town of Chester.

Camp Hazen is one of the answers to the great problem that confronts boys and their parents at this time of the year. What shall a boy do with his vacation and where shall he spend it?

Camping is the most attractive and satisfactory answer, and it seems to satisfy both parents and boys alike. But again the question arises, what kind of a camp is the best suited for the development of growing boys? A few years ago it was not a question of what kind of a camp, but a question of where is there one. Today this country is covered with all kinds of camps, and it has become quite a question of just which one is the best suited for one's own particular boy.

Following are some of the most important and the most common questions that arise when one is investigating camps:

Is the camp run for profit or for character development? Is the camp directed by a strictly first class trained worker with boys, or only a well meaning novice? Has the camp a satisfactory history? What is the type of boys who attend? Is the camp located as to food, purity and travel? Is the water absolutely pure and satisfactory? What is the leadership of the camp? What does the camp programme consist of?

East Norwich, June 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Palmer at Northfield commencement (Special to The Bulletin).

East Norwich, June 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, of New London, have been taking a prominent part in the 39th commencement exercises at Northfield Seminary.

Northfield Seminary, which closed last night, Mr. Palmer for many years has been a member of the board of trustees of the Northfield Seminary, Incorporated, which controls Mount Hermon as well as Northfield Seminary and attended the annual meeting on Saturday.

Friday evening the annual meeting of the Northfield Seminary Students' Aid society was held, and Mrs. Palmer presided. Mr. Palmer offered prayer at this meeting, and also read the Scripture meeting at the big Sunday morning service in the auditorium, which was attended by over 2,000.

In the afternoon about 2,000 crowded the auditorium to hear the annual sacred concert of the students of both schools, and Mrs. Palmer sang a solo. She also sang a solo at the morning services.

Fifty-five students were graduated yesterday, of whom two have applied for admission in Connecticut college this fall. Northfield will be comparatively quiet now, except for date Bible readings at the Hotel Northfield, until the big summer conference beginning on June 27, and lasting until August 21.

DELAWARE ASKS ADVICE FROM CONNECTICUT AUTOMOBILES

Because they regard Connecticut "as the most advanced state in handling the motor vehicle problem," officials of Delaware have approached the Connecticut department of motor vehicles for assistance in the preparation of bills looking to a reconstruction of the motor vehicle laws of that state which are to be submitted to the next session of the Delaware legislature.

General Benson, secretary of the state for Delaware, having accepted an offer from the Delaware Safety Council to undertake a complete and thorough study of the motor vehicle problem, under a law adopted by the last session of the Connecticut legislature, the inspectors of the motor vehicle department were transferred to the state police department, which has taken over all of the inspection and enforcement duties formerly performed by the motor vehicle department.

Information may be obtained from the postmaster at Jewett City or district superintendent, Boston, Mass.

$1,000 IN FINES IN NEW LONDON LIQUOR CASES

Raid by the state police in conjunction with the New London police force last Saturday night netted $1,000 in fines and a total of 249 days in jail sentences in decisions handed down on Tuesday by Judge S. Victor Prince in police court in New London. Two of the accused, Michael Wileczek, 40, Federal street, and Samuel Bronstein, 115 Green street, were not given jail sentences and did not take any appeal. The other three accused were given jail sentences and all three served notice of appeal through their attorneys. Terrence Pelachon, who was found guilty of selling liquor at the Paramount restaurant, Bank street, where it is alleged by the prosecution, that girls were employed as waiters to attract the trade of naval and military men, was given the heaviest sentence, six months in jail being imposed upon Pelachon.

Alfonse Cavicholi and Albert Servadio, affiliated with a restaurant conducted at the corner of Water and Atlantic streets, were given 30 days each. Salvatore Malcorno, former proprietor of the restaurant, who claims to have sold the business on last Thursday, was brought to court by the police Tuesday and during court a warrant was served upon him also charging him with a violation of the liquor law. His case was continued until Saturday morning. Each of the five accused was fined $200.

ARCHITECT BRINGS SUIT AGAINST POLISH NAT. CHURCH

George E. Pitcher, civil engineer and architect, and Elmer E. Pitcher of this city have brought suit for the common counts for $1,000 against the Polish National Catholic church of the Divine Providence, which is a corporation of this city.

The suit is returnable to the superior court in June.

Bristol.—A monument to perpetuate the memory of Ephraim Downs, one of the original clock-makers of New England, will be placed on the site of the old Downs mill on the Memorial boulevard, by his descendants.

BIDS IN NOANK YARD FOR $2,500 OVER CLAIMS

Jennie R. Morse, of Bath, Me., sister of Charles W. Morse, head of the Groton Iron Works, bid in the Noank plant of the company at the sale held Tuesday morning at the order of the superior court and conducted by James R. May, appointed by the court as a committee to auction off the property, Miss Morse bid $2,500 over and above outstanding claims.

There was a mortgage on the plant of $96,688.55 held by Jennie R. Morse, which, with interest, amounted to $101,134.86, and judgment for which she had obtained by order of the court, also prior claims amounting to $43,341.27. These prior claims included $10,320 due the Savings Bank of New London; town taxes, $5,361.80; school taxes, $1,249.75, and an attachment for $990. The bidder assumed these obligations and the bid was for equity in the property.

Irwin A. Morse, son of Charles W. Morse, bid in behalf of his aunt, who was not present, starting the bid at $1,000. C. R. Caruthers of Philadelphia bid $1,500. Mr. Morse $1,750. Mr. Caruthers $2,000 and Mr. Morse $2,500 which was the highest bid offered.

The property was appraised at $51,000. The property consists of land, a marine railway, buildings and considerable machinery.

DOCTOR DISCOVERS NEW RUPTURE REMEDY

Akron, Ohio, June 7.—A prominent Ohio physician has discovered a wonderful new method which is completely revolutionizing the information regarding this remedy is totally different from any other operation—no cutting and no stitching. The operation is performed without pain or danger and without leaving an hour from work.

It is performed immediately and recovery is usually so rapid as to seem miraculous. Anyone who is ruptured may obtain the information regarding this remarkable discovery by writing E. H. Scott, Hernia Specialist, 340 D. Street, Akron, Ohio, who will send interesting booklet in plain sealed wrapper.

POETRY

THE BRIDE.

Now is the morn'g when the rose is blooming
White in its purity, pink in its pride.
Now in the blush of its sweetest bride,
Fresh as the rose that grows in the pride.

Pure is the breath of a June-time morn'g.

Pure is the sunlight's dawning dart,
Pure is the breeze that the eternal air
Foretells of all is a maiden's heart.

Sweet is the myrtle's real and pleading.

Sweet is the exultant throb and thrill,
Sweet is the calm and hush and sweet
Sweet is the bride's "I will."

Firm is the heart though the voice may falter.

Whole is the trust as the birdling band
Waiting before the altar's light,
Soul unto soul as hand to hand.

So be the new and so forever.

Bride to the man she loves the best:
Time, nor trouble, nor death, disaster,
Discord threaten not their love.

Whether the bride be rich or lowly.

True be the trust and the king be bold,
Ere is nothing and Love is All.
—Edmund Vance Cook, in Boston Transcript.

THE THRUSH.

All through the golden hours of June,
From morning bluffs to golden noon,
And till the star of evening glimmers
The thrush sings a song of love and joy.

There sings a Thrush amid the lilacs.

God's poet, 'mid the foliage green,
Sings endless songs himself unseen.
Right endless come his silent thrills,
Longer the summer hours are spent.

Sing on, dear Thrush, amid the lilacs!

Nor from these confines wander out,
Where the old sun, hazy and old,
Counts its all-day his maddening crimes:
Though cherry ripe and sweet, so doth,
Sweetly, the song amid the lilacs.

May I dream from this nest, where I sit?

Thou melodic song, the air
Gives me a vision of a better life,
With music's soul, all praise and prayer,
Is that thy lesson in the lilacs?

Closer to God art thou than I.

His music, 'mid the leaves and wings
Through silent ether's summer climes,
Ah, never over the music die,
Sing on, dear Thrush, amid the lilacs!

—Mortimer Collins.
